Over 140 artisans from throughout the northeast will exhibit their works at the two-day show and sale, with items ranging from sterling silver and gold filled jewelry to furniture, stained glass, leatherwork and sheepskin products, contemporary pottery, hand painted children's clothing and more.

The Fair, one of the largest in the northeast, draws over 8,000 visitors to the HCCC campus over the two days. Co-chairperson Grace McLaughlin said "it's a perfect opportunity to begin your holiday shopping. There is a great choice of very unique gifts at the Fair."
