

Program of Study

BU 126 Supply Chain Management

Supply chain management focuses on managing materials and information outside of the factory walls and includes aspects of product design collaboration, demand planning and forecasting, inventory deployment, distribution system design, channel management procurement and logistics. Contact Hours: (3,0)

Credits

3

BU 209 Inventory Control/Warehouse Mgmt

Inventory Control and Warehouse Management will cover the basics of supply chain management, manufacturing planning, control systems, purchasing, physical distribution, storage handling, and quality management concepts and applications.

Contact Hours: (3,0)

Credits

3

BU 230 Transportation Management

The transportation management course will explore the role of transportation as a critical link in global supply chain management. Topics covered will include an examination of the external forces impacting supply chain management, the various modes of transportation and their current operations and the various critical transportation management issues and challenges facing today's supply chain managers. Contact Hours: (3,0)

Credits

3

BU 254 Organizational Behavior

This course is designed as an introduction to human behavior in organizations. The focus is on improving analytical, decision-making, interpersonal and leadership skills within the organization. Students will also focus on theories and research findings on the topic of change within the business environment. NOTE: Offered fall semesters only. Contact Hours: (3,0)

Credits

3

Contact Associate Dean William McDonald for more information:
mcdonalwh@herkimer.edu | 315.866.0300 x8241.