FAQ

What is Interlibrary Loan?

Interlibrary loan (ILL) Interlibrary loan is the process by which a library requests materials from, or supplies materials to, another library. The purpose of interlibrary loan is to obtain, upon request of a library user, materials not available in the user's local library (National Interlibrary Loan Code for the United States).

What is ILLiad?

ILLiad is a software product that allows you to electronically request material from other libraries. It tracks the process through your online ILLiad account (see above for what the log-in screen looks like).

Requesting an Interlibrary Loan with ILLiad

When you see the icon, use your MyHerkimer username and password to log in to ILLiad. If you are a first-time user ILLiad user, you must register before you can request items. You will NOT have to repeat this information again.

Material usually AVAILABLE through Interlibrary loan

- Any material found in libraries is generally available.
- Books, government documents, theses, music, and some videos, depending on other library lending policies.
- Materials produced in microform.

Material Usually NOT Available

- Course textbooks
- Periodical volumes
- Recent newspapers
- Bulky or fragile items

- Reference books
- Rare or valuable material such as manuscripts

Copyright Laws

NOTICE WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Delivery Time

Article/Photocopy Requests 3 days – 2 weeks

Books/Other Loan Requests 2 weeks minimum

Notification of Arrival

You will receive email communications regarding ILL requests via the email you supplied when registering for ILLiad.
