Declaration of Finances

You must provide evidence of financial support for all anticipated educational and living expenses for the first year of study in the United States before an I-20 or DS-2019 can be prepared. The I-20 is the document required to apply for an F-1 student visa. The DS-2019 is needed for a J-1 Exchange Visitor (student) visa.

The evidence you provide must be original documents and must not be more than six months old. Required documents can be the following:

- Bank statement or certificate of balance signed by a bank official on official letter head indicating account opening date, average balance, and current balance.
- Scholarship or sponsorship letter verifying the amount, source, and length of the award.
