

Inclusive Early Childhood Education
Inclusive Elementary Education
Bachelor of Science

- Eligible students must have an Associate's degree in either Early Childhood Education or Childhood Education or 60 transferrable credits with required prerequisites.
- Upon graduation from the IECE program, students may be eligible for dual certification in Early Childhood Teacher Education and Special Education (Birth–2nd Grade)
- Upon graduation from the IEE program, students may be eligible for dual certification in Inclusive Elementary Education and Special Education (Grades 1st– 6th)
- This is a part-time program in which students can take eleven credits at most per semester. Evening courses are offered at Herkimer College, each one night per week, 5:30–8:30 p.m. A selection of online courses is available.
- Residency Requirement, State Education Department – One designated course must be completed on the Cazenovia College campus. This course will be offered in a summer two-weekend format and housing is provided. Usually second summer of the program.
- Tuition at Herkimer and online – $250/credit hour.

How to Apply:

1. Complete and return the Application Form*
2. Mail official transcripts from all colleges attended*
3. Mail official high school or GED transcript*
4. Complete the Meningitis Fact Sheet and Response Form and return it to our Health Office
5. Send a copy of your shot records to our Health Office
6. If applying for Financial Aid, complete the FAFSA form online (the Financial Aid office will let you know what else is required)

*Mail to:

Center for Career and Extended Learning
Cazenovia College
22 Sullivan Street
Cazenovia, NY 13035

Questions? Contact Taylor Kubber at (315) 655-7191 or email tnkubber@cazenovia.edu.