

Articulation Agreement between

State University of New York College of Technology at Delhi Recreation and Sports Facility Management (B.B.A.)

and

Herkimer County Community College
Sports and Recreation Management (A.A.S.)

EFFECTIVE - Fall 2016

The State University of New York College of Technology at Delhi agrees to articulate with Herkimer County Community College in Herkimer, NY by providing opportunities for appropriately qualified students to complete the Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) in Recreation and Sports Facility Management degree. Students selected for matriculation in these programs will, upon satisfactory completion of a prescribed sequence of courses leading to an Associate of Science (AAS) degree in Sports and Recreation Management from Herkimer County Community College, continue their studies at the State University of New York College of Technology at Delhi, completing all requirements for a corresponding Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) in Recreation and Sports Facility Management. While admission to the State University of New York College of Technology at Delhi is competitive, students satisfying the following requirements will automatically be accepted:

1. Completion of a Herkimer County Community College Sports and Recreation Management A. A.S. degree.
2. Completion of all coursework for either the Sports and Recreation Management A.A.S. degree from Herkimer County Community College with a cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA) of 2.30 or higher (A=4.0).
3. The student must complete the Herkimer County Community College AAS degree in Sports and Recreation Management to be recognized as a full junior. Sports and Recreation Management students must have completed the prescribed coursework as outlined in this articulation agreement. Those who follow this template may receive up to 62 credits in transfer.

This articulation is based on the following inter-institutional agreements:

- A. The State University of New York College at Delhi (SUNY Delhi) will provide financial aid support to matriculated students who qualify for financial aid. SUNY Delhi's Federal school code is 002857. Interested students must submit an application for admission, along with all college transcripts as required by the Enrollment Services Office at the State University of New York at Delhi.
- B. SUNY Delhi advisors will assume responsibility for advising students who are admitted by this agreement. SUNY Delhi curriculum fact sheets will be used as the mechanism for communicating degree requirements to students. Fact sheets will be reviewed annually and appropriate revisions to guide sheets will be made as each institution adds, deletes, or changes course offerings.
- C. The Coordinator for Academic Exploration Programs at SUNY Delhi will be designated as the contact person and coordinator of this agreement.
- D. Should either party desire to terminate this ARTICULATION AGREEMENT, notification shall be given to the other party in writing not less than three (3) months prior to the proposed date of termination. Any student enrolled in the program will be allowed to complete their degree at SUNY Delhi.
- E. The State University of New York College at Delhi will supply Herkimer County Community College with promotional and information literature, which will be used to assist students, faculty, and staff. Both institutions will publicize this agreement in some form on their respective websites.

In addition to the above, students must:

1. Contact the State University of New York College at Delhi transfer counselor during the first or second year of study in the Associate of Science (AAS) degree in Sports and Recreation Management at Herkimer County Community College
2. Submit an application for admission as required by the Enrollment Services Office at the State University of New York College at Delhi.

In the case of programs that are not covered by this agreement, students must follow normal procedures for transfer admissions and will be subject to the same requirements for these programs as other students applying.
